It was a lovely year for Book of J! The New Yorker called us expansive, blue, queer, gothic and political. Yes, we are a fancy layer cake. In the summer we did a residency at Barbès in Brooklyn; in the fall we were in the midwest, singing American psalms at a Czech social hall and union songs in a soaring chapel.

We taught at the University of Chicago, at Coastal Roots farm, and with Because Jewish. We ate new we saw a famous incantation bowl and some teraphim. We recorded a fat luscious album and it's coming out with 3rdGenerationRecordings in the spring. This winter we will be in SF and LA, Boston and New York, Madison and Chicago. Hope to see you!

Peace,
Jewlia of Charming Hostess
